

Cross Cultural Brown Bag Lunch Series

Monday, November 9

Noon – 1:30 in Student Involvement Suites B&C

LOCATION

Stamp Student Union
Student Involvement
Suites B&C

DATE

Monday, Nov. 9

TIME

12:00PM – 1:30PM

MICA Cross Cultural Brown Bag Panel Discussion Latinos in the Military During WWII

For more information,
Contact:
Brandon Dula
bdula@umd.edu

Please also join us at the Presentation of Research on the Military by the Sociology
Department on November 12 from Noon – 1:30 in the Thurgood Marshall Room in the Stamp.

Agenda:

Karin K. DeAngelis

Mandated Change and Gendered
Organizational Culture: A
Content Analysis of Graduate
Perceptions of the US Air Force
Academy's Agenda for Change

Mary K. Kniskern

Spousal Employment after a
Move: A Military-Civilian
Comparison of Labor Force
Participation Following Tied Migration

Wesley s. Huey

Innovation as Group Process:
Hierarchy, Status and Small Group Dynamics

Kimberly Bonner

Lesbians Passing in the Military
During Enforcement of DADT

Michelle Sandhoff

Women's Participation in the Military: Placing Israel in a Transnational Perspective

- Dr. Victoria-Maria MacDonald, Assistant Professor in the Department of Curriculum and Instruction discusses her research which looks at the experiences of Latino Veterans during WWII.
- Robert K. Chester, Ph.D. Candidate in the Department of American Studies explores the politics of images of Latino WWII veterans and soldiers in the postwar period.
- Chris Garcia, Residential Facilities Manager, who will share her father's remarkable story of serving in the US Army Air Corps (later US Air Force) during WWII.

UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND

ADELE H. STAMP STUDENT UNION
Center for Campus Life